My Dear Bir. My wife has been perceptibly flaking for some three years or more, in consequences of great anguish and suffering some monthle before and during confisement; every uncessive one more and more debilitated and protrated her, putting her life in immisent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed that this state of things yas inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the wirest. I hisrafy-our book highly speken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal I cannot express to you the recipit of all red only distreased mind, and the jop its pages tenarted to my wife on learning that the great ulscovery of M. M. Desements Proviced a remedy. It opened a peopect to me which I little cancelved was possible. But for this, ore matcher year well have passed over my bead, in all human probability my wife would have been in high grave and my children list
